THE BATTLE OF LIFE.

Which is continually going on between health and disease, has never received from any Medicine such marked and unmistakable assistance, on the side of health, as it has from

BRISTOL'S SARSAPARILLA.

This powerful vegetable detergent has been fully tested in nearly every part of the civilised world. It has been tried in long-standing cases of

and has invariably been successful in curing them. It has been again and again tested in Fever and Ague, Intermittent and Remittent Fevers, and always with the same excellent results. In it is infallible, curing cases that had resisted al other treatment for nearly a lifetime, allaying every phase of inflammation, and leaving the joints in a natural condition. In it is a sovereign remedy—causing new circulation of the blood around the edges of the sore, are speedily filling up and drawing together the flesh; which in old sores is generally inert and ifeless. In the effect is truly wonderful. The scrofulous and depraved blood and humors on which such sores feed and live, are neutralized at the stomach, the fountain-head, and new and healthy blood soon washes away every vestige of disease. In the effect is equally gratifying; although, of course, it is necessary to persevere for some months in diseases such as those having their origin in bad blood and humors; and in such diseases as the Sarsaparilla should be continued for at least four or five months after the trouble has to all appearance been overcome, because unless this is done, and the nature of the blood and humors be entirely changed throughout the whole body, the disease is liable to return with unabated force. In the Sarsaparilla should be taken five or six times a day, but not in very large doses—say two or three tablespoonfuls at a time. And in all of these diseases we strongly urge the use of Bristol's Sugar-coated Pills, in conjunction with the Sarsaparilla, taking two or three Pills every second night on retiring to rest. In this way cures will be more speedily effected.

IMMIGRANTS' HOUSE.

The Sisters of Mercy desire to express their gratitude to the generous subscribers towards their "Immigrant House," No. 248 Calle Chacabuco. The amount already collected will enable them to commence the building they propose, but it will not suffice to finish it.
The facility such establishments afford, both at home and abroad, for obtaining persons of respectable character, and likewise efficient for domestic service, sufficiently recommends them, to the public, without at all taking into consideration, the amount of misery it precludes. The Sisters therefore confidently hope that, a call from them for further assistance will not be in vain. They also take advantage of this opportunity to remark they invariably give a note to any one that they recommend to a situation, and that all subscription, not entered by the doner, in the collecting book, kept in the Convent, will be published in the 'Standard' every month.

TRIAL BY JURY.

Yesterday morning another man was stabbed in this city, he was taken away to the Hospital by the Comisario in a carriage, bleeding profusely; the cause of this melancholy affair we understand was a dispute between two butchers in the old market. The wounded man when taken away was supposed to be dying, and the party who inflicted the wound we understand is under arrest; now, as far as regards the public, according to the miserable system of criminal judicature in Buenos Ayres, the case ends here, when on the contrary in properly organized communities it should only begin; the hurried particulars picked up from the bystanders or 'vigilantes,' are all that can be afforded to society which has been outraged by the offence, the statement of the accused, the dying declaration of the wounded man, the evidence of witnesses, are all kept from public view, and are only known to the judge who tries and the lawyer who defends the prisoner. We ask is it any wonder that under such circumstances crime should be so rapidly on the increase in this city?

There is now scarcely one week that passes that does not bring us about 1,000 Mediterranean emigrants. House rent is running up, real estate touching fabulous prices, owing to the influx of strangers from every quarter. Men of every stamp and calibre are arriving on these shores. It behoves us all therefore to see that if we alter the style of house-building to meet the necessities of the times, so also we alter the mechanism of our criminal procedure, to adapt our courts to the period.

Society as at present organized has no real 'bona fide' protection in the Plate, the ancient habits and rules which in the beginning of the century were found sufficient for every emergency, are now obsolete and utterly useless, all admit this, yet such is the demoralization of the bar and the forum that judicial reform seems utterly hopeless.

The secresy with which all criminal proceedings are carried on in this city is itself one of the strongest incentives to crime; years after the perpetration of a murder the assassin is tried, as a matter of course, the public have long since forgotten the tragedy, the felon is convicted of homicide, sentenced to a few years imprisonment, perhaps sent down to Bahia Blanca, where in a few months he manages to escape,—and without even the braud of a ticket of leave, is back again in our very midst.

Let it not be supposed that this is by any means an exaggerated picture; far from it, too often the felons, even before trial, escape from our wretchedly managed prisons, and then the farce of the trial in the absence of the criminal is gone through. How much longer, we ask, is this to last?

Criminal trials to be of any use should be both public and summary; the prisoner should be tried within a week after apprehension, the proceedings published in the newspapers, and the public fully acquainted with all particulars of trial. Any other system of procedure is but a mere farce that throws discredit upon the community that tolerates it.

No criminal is to-day punished in Buenos Ayres, we fearlessly make the assertion; it should be placarded on the street corners, for it is a solemn fact. Governor Castro says he can do nothing, the lawyers and legislators are equally impotent; 'en fin,' it seems that no one can do anything. It devolves therefore upon the public to act in such an emergency; a meeting should be called, and resolutions passed which will prove to the country at large that the state of affairs is one common danger, and trial by jury the only relief.

COLON THEATRE.

DEBUT OF MADAME GASC.

It is not often that we have witnessed at a more genuine success than the one that attended the debut of Mme. Gasc on Wednesday last. Arriving among us without any bombastic flourish of newspaper puffing, the managers of the Colon wisely determined to let the Buenos Ayres public form their own opinion of her merits, and the result has proved that they were not wrong.

A large concourse of people, including not only the most select portion of our fashionable society but also many of our most noted musical artists, filled every box and seat in Colon, and gave to the house an aspect of brilliancy that we do not see every day. The modesty with which Mme. Gasc submitted herself to be judged by a public quite new to her, had given rise to a presentiment that she was worth hearing, and created a demand for boxes and seats quite unprecedented, the knowledge of which, if flattering to Mme. Gasc, must have to a certain degree increased the difficulties of the ordeal she was about to go through.

On her first appearance in the second act she was, as a matter of course, welcomed with an encouraging applause, of which she evidently stood in no small need, since it could be seen that she was greatly affected, and her hand could be seen to shake from excess of nervousness. Her part in this act did not give much room to form any just appreciation of her worth, yet the very first notes she poured forth at once revealed a voice of a most pleasing 'timbre' and of unusual freshness. These qualities are particularly remarkable in the high notes, and in the finale of the second act her silvery notes could be heard most distinctly over all the others.

It was however in the duet with Marcelo in the third act that her artistic reputation was at once established. Not only did the public appreciate all the merits of a voice peculiarly sweet, but was able to do justice to her excellent method and correctness of singing, and testified their approval by occasional bursts of applause during the duet, and a thunder of applause at its conclusion, which obliged her to come out three times successively to acknowledge the compliment. In the great duo with the tenor at the end of the fourth act she not only made an equally good impression, but displayed great talent as an actress. Lelmi seconded her in this grand scene, and much as we admire this popular singer, we fear no contradiction in stating that, during the many years in which we have had the pleasure of hearing him, he has seldom been more effective or sang better than on this occasion. Both he and Mme Gasc were repeatedly called before the scene after the curtain dropped, and the latter was presented with a splendid bouquet besides a handsome wreath of flowers.

Our recollections of Valentina are intimately connected with another Julia. The celebrated Grisi who when we heard her in this part was, however, in her decline, although comparisons are odious, we venture to say that Mme. Gasc may bear it boldly with her famous prototype. The managers of Colon have made in Julia Gasc a most valuable acquisition, and if they only secure the services of Mme. Uberti in the part of the page, as well as improve the women's chorus, they might rely safely upon a full house whenever they announce the Huguenots,

THE IMMIGRATION COMMITTEE

At last we are happy to say the Argentine Government seems to be doing something for the poor immigrant.—We must be thankful for small mercies, and we note with pleasure in the pamphlet which Mr Wilcken, the secretary of the committee, sent us yesterday a very salutary regulation respecting the landing of immigrants from all sailing ships and steamers arriving in this port. Hitherto the immigrants were most shamefully fleeced by the lighterinen, who charged literally all that they were able to collect of the unfortunate immigrants, but the Minister of War has given directions to the Captain of the Port to prohibit all lighters going alongside immigrant ships save those employed expressly by the Immigration Committee. This is really an excellent measure, and we hope to see the Captain of the Port strictly carry it out. The charge for passengers landing from the Inner Roads should never be over $20 m|c.—yet every day the boatmen extort from the passengers a higher charge.

Another very excellent measure, which comes into force next February, is the certified list of passengers which each ship captain will be compelled to give the committee under a heavy fine. Immigrants are now arriving so fast that the Port Captain cannot be too exact in his regulations, and the Immigration Committee would confer a high favour by having constantly on the Hole Mead a proper agent to look after the interests of the unfortunate immigrants; it is essential that such agent, besides speaking Italian and French, should also know English, as many of the English immigrants are fearfully fleeced when landing.

The Asylum for Immigrants gives eight days free board and lodging to every new arrival, and furthermore finds for them immediate employment.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The Oriental Finance Minister sent round on Wednesday to the principal mercantile houses in Montevideo a circular to convene the members of each firm to a meeting at the Government House yesterday, for the consideration of matters of great public importance. The present depressed state of trade, and the abnormal condition of the finances, would, it was thought, be the chief subjects discussed. The "Telegrafo Maritimo" publishes a long list of the letters lately opened and violated by one of the employés of the Post Office, and which were found at his lodgings on his arrest. Toe correspondence is also given. The parties interested can obtain them on application to the Post Office authorities.

The Opera House was crowded to the doors on Wednesday night to witness the debut of Madame Julia Gasc in the Huguenots. This lady possesses an 'alto soprano' voice of great sweetness, and most pleasing 'timbre,' the effect of which is greatly enhanced by her dramatic powers, which appear, on a first acquaintance, to be of the highest order. The audience were evidently determined to be strictly just in forming their judgment of the new aspirant, and were at first rather cold; but as the opera proceeded, and Madame Gasc gradually shook off the nervousness which she at first evidently labored under, she won rapidly on her hearers, and drew down repeated bursts of the most genuine appreciation. She obtained a decided triumph in the grand 'scena' with Raoul, in the fourth act. Nothing could be finer than both her acting and singing; and at the fall of the curtain she was twice recalled, amidst the most enthusiastic applause. Lelmi, as is always the case when he has a full audience, played and sang far above his average, and fully deserved the repeated applause he evoked, and his share of the triumph in the fourth act. It is unnecessary to refer to the other members of the company, who fully sustained their reputations in their respective 'roles.' We remarked that the chorusses were at times a little wild and uneven, but on the whole, the opera was put on the stage in a most creditable manner. We refer more in detail to Madame Gasc's abilities in another column, and are of opinion that, though she came unheralded by the trumpetting forth of antecedents, so much in vogue here on every fresh appearance, she will eclipse many, if not all of her gifted predecessors.

Operations are still apparently being pushed forward at the seat of war. A telegram has been received from Minister Paranhos, dated 20th inst., to the effect that H.R.H. the Commander-in-Chief was about to order the army to advance in pursuit of Lopez. Gen. Camara had succeeded in cutting off the enemy's supply of cattle, which he lately received from the North. Major Martinez, with forty men, had come up again with a small force of Paraguayans, under Colonel Cañete, who at once retreated, leaving all his 'materiel' in our hands, and, besides, all Lopez's correspondence, dated from Caraguatay. Lopez had ordered the 'gefe de partida' to be shot, unless he at once obtained a supply of, at least, one hundred head of cattle. This telegram gives the 'lie direct' to the 'canard' circulated last week of the disappearance of the Paraguayan leader. Verily, it requires many a 'granum salis' to render news from Paraguay digestible.

An establishment, under the direction of Sr. Rodriguez, has been opened at No. 43 Calle Victoria, for the sale, at reduced prices, of Liebig's celebrated Extract of Meat, manufactured by Messrs. Benitez, of Gualeguaychu. This extract is daily coming into increased consumption, both in private houses and large public institutions. It is invaluable in the making of soup and other dishes, also for invalids. The reduced price at which Messrs. Rodriguez, Larrazabal & Co., who are sole agents in Buenos Ayres, sell this valuable substance will, no doubt, tend to greatly increase its consumption in the metropolis.

News has been received in Montevideo of another lost ship, an English barque, between Point Indio and Point Piedra. At first the wreck was supposed to be an American ship, but she turns out to be English. A French brig lost three anchors in the voyage from Montevideo to this port. It appears that there is at present a strike amongst the pilots in Montevideo, who refuse to act any longer, in consequence of the prohibition of the Buenos Ayres Government to allow Montevidean pilots to take ships down from Buenos Ayres to Montevideo. Rather a serious affair this. It is rumored in Montevideo that the British Minister in B Aires has taken the matter up, and applied to the Government about this new and inconvenient regulation. Sr. Moreno, the secretary of the Port Captain of Buenos Ayres, has gone down to Montevideo to try and arrange the matter.

The non-arrival of the steamer Proveedor from Paraguay caused much notice; she was expected on Wednesday. On enquiry in the matter we learn that she did not arrive at Asuncion before Saturday night, and as she had to load a large cargo of yerba, it is probable that she did not leave Asuncion before Tuesday. Respecting Lopez there is nothing certain; some say that he is dead, others missing, but all in Asuncion believe the war virtually over.

The Gironde will leave Montevideo on the 1st Dec. This will not allow time for a supplemental mail from this city.

A great political meeting came off in Montevideo the other night, over 800 persons were present. The object of the meeting was to amalgamate the different Colorado parties under one banner.

The shooting of an assassin in Montevideo named Castillo is a notable event. Some of our colleagues make the execution as an excuse for an appeal for the abolition of capital punishment. Our colleagues know little of the general feeling of the public on this subject when they advocate such a cause; if there is any subject upon which the public of Buenos Ayres agrees, it is for the stringent enforcement of capital punishment in all murder cases. The conduct of the Montevidean Government in ridding society of an assassin, calls for the most unmeasured approbation.

We have received from Mr. Wilcken, the active agent of the Immigration Office, a neat pamphlet, giving the history of the organization of the office and its objects. We are well pleased to note a marked improvement in this most useful office; Mr. Wilcken seems to be the right man in the right place.

The Montevidean papers announce the discovery of two large coal deposits, one near the town of Minas, and the other in the department of Colonia.

The increasing tide of immigration to this country is attracting daily increasing attention; the returns for 1869 will probably show more than 40,000 arrivals in the Plate from Europe. The evening official organ in an able article on this subject, says the time has come when the matter must be taken up in earnest. An impression prevails in Europe that work can be had here for the asking by all comers. We must do our best to render this a fact, Governor Castro has much in his power in framing his new land law, and we have no doubt that it will be conceived in a spirit of liberality and wise foresight that will give a vigorous impulse to immigration, the most pressing want of every new country.

Cleanliness is Godliness, and with pleasure we read in the 'Republica' of yesterday, a very well written article on the necessity of public swimming baths, which we purpose translating and publishing. There is at present no decent place in Buenos Ayres where a man can take a good healthy swim, but we are on the eve of a reform in this respect, happily, and we have reason to believe that very soon swimming baths at the mole head will be in fashion.

Parties who have arrived from Montevideo give a very melancholy picture of the depressed state of things in that city. For the last twenty years Montevideo has not been so dull as at present, the brokers no longer frequent the Bolsa, many of them have left the city and have taken to chacra life; paper money keeps steadily improving, gold going down, and positively nothing doing in any department; the new wool is coming in now, but there are no buyers.

A model of the monument to be erected in memory of the late Dr. Alsina can be seen at the well-known establishment of Messrs. Fusoni.

One hundred and ten new arrivals reached the Sunchales Colony in Santa Fé some days ago; they were delighted at the flourishing condition of the settlers, and were full of hope as to attaining within a short time similar prosperity.

A letter has been received from the Bishop of Cuyo, in which it is stated that the Holy See has already granted permission for the celebration of marriage between those of different religions in this country.

The Executive of Mendoza has addressed a letter to the chairman of the Buenos Ayres Exhibition Company, stating that they will subscribe for shares in that undertaking as soon as the consent of the Chambers can be obtained.

We have seen the collection of maps drawn up by the late Alfred de Moussy for the Government. They are beautifully executed, with a frontispiece representing a Gaucho taking mate, and another playing the guitar. The construction of these maps is in every way worthy of the distinguished author whose death was such a loss to the scientific world.

The weather yesterday was unusually warm, the thermometer being high, whilst the barometer has not been so low for a long time past; this state of affairs is a sure indication of an approaching thunderstorm. A subscriber informed us, that yesterday, he could from the roof of his house distinctly discern the Colonia coast, a very unusual circumstance, showing a state of the atmosphere that in these latitudes is invariably followed by a storm.

Ex-Governor Zavalla was arrested by order of the Criminal Judge of San Juan on suspicion of being concerned in a revolutionary plot in connection with political parties in other provinces; confirmation of those suspicions were it is said, afforded on his private papers being examined; he had been brought up for examination, but denied the competency of the Judge to question him and refused to answer.

There was a smart "temporal" experienced at and around Rosario on Sunday last; some slight damage to the crops is reported.

A letter has been published by a colleague announcing that the Ariadne, the pioneer steamer of the line established for carrying live stock from here to Europe, would sail from London on the 16th of this month; she may be expected in Montevideo on or about the 10th prox.

Our worthy Lord Mayor has given the 'vasura' contractors a fillip; they now go their rounds in many streets immediately after daybreak. The inhabitants of that fashionable locality Park Lane [formerly Calle Parque] object 'to the dustman knocking at such a plebeian hour as 5 o'clock a.m., and think that a couple of hours later would answer quite as well; the earlier the better say we, particularly during the hot weather.

A singular scene occurred lately in a church at Cordoba. A madman entered the sacred edifice during mass, and began to knock down and smash the candlesticks, statues, sacred vessels, &c. on the side altars. A priest who was in his confessional rushed out, and was immediately knocked down by the madman; others shared a like fate, and the fair devotees present fled in all directions. The police were at last called in and secured the unfortunate man.

The Taboadas are again giving trouble; according to a colleague, attempts have been made to seduce some of the military, happily without effect. The elections are the cause of this renewed agitation.

The 'Nacion,' which keeps a wakeful eye on the purse strings of the country, lately discovered 'a mares nest' in the amount paid to the Foreign Minister for expenses of his trip to Paraguay, which according to our colleague reached the sum of twelve thousand patacons. The 'Tribuna' of yesterday brings forward a semi-official note proving that the amount does not exceed three thousand patacons; in our opinion a very moderate amount of pocket money for a Foreign Minister 'en voyoge.'

A new list of members of the Bolsa is about being published. Members are requested to send in the numbers of their local habitations, and their names to the Secretary before the 10th prox.

A small theatre is about to be built at South Barracas. There are eight thousand people in this district, and the proposed theatre ought to pay fairly. A 'cafe chantant,' with an unlimited supply of 'can-can' would be still better, judging from our experience of the public taste in this city.

THE COST OF THE WAR TO BRAZIL.

From the River Plate Mail.

A statement of the cost of the Paraguayan war to the allies, which appeared in a Buenos Ayres journal, has been repeated in the London journals, and is accepted by the "Economist," in one of those occasional notes which appear to record the less matured opinions of so many of our contemporaries just now, as perfectly credible. This statement makes the total cost of the war to the allies upwards of sixty million pounds sterling, of which fifty-six millions two hundred and eighty thousand pounds are assigned to Brazil, nine millions, three hundred and sixty pounds to the Argentine Confederation, and about a million and a-quarter to the Oriental Republic; and from the effects of this large expenditure these countries will not, it is inferred, recover during the present century.

During the four years and a-half, which the war has now lasted, its cost to Brazil, beyond its ordinary army and navy expenditure, we believe, has been about 30,000,000*l* a very large sum, no doubt; one that has added to the public debt of the Empire and inflated its paper currency, but still £26,000,000 less than the figures put in circulation from Buenos Ayres, whence it may be suggested, accuracy on questions affecting Brazil is not to be expected.

The time has not, of course, come when the total cost of the war can be precisely ascertained. But in looking at the financial position and prospects of the Empire, it is to be noted that the cost up to the present time whatever it may be, has been liquidated and fully discharged by the Brazilian Government.

It is further to be observed, that the military force of Brazil in Paraguay at present does not exceed 28,000 men, which is certainly one half in amount the force Brazil had some two years and a half ago in that country. The later expenditure of the war has, therefore, been much less than the earlier expenditure—a fact which seems to have been omitted in the B. Ayrean calculations.

Putting the total cost of the war even as high as £35,000,000 that sum, which has already been nearly all paid, ought not, our readers will at once see, produce these adverse effects on the Brazilian Empire which our contemporary anticipates. If such expenditure were likely to prove ruinous to the Empire or throw it back for a century, inasmuch as it has been, to the extent of at least £30,000,000, already incurred, its disastrous results ought now to be very apparent. Yet, except in the state of the exchanges, no such consequent adversity is to be seen; and, inasmuch as the exchange had fallen below 27d. prior to 1865, the whole of its present depreciation is not to be ascribed to the war, but is, as to great part, to be attributed to the financial disasters at Rio, which occurred from a very different cause in September, 1864. Within the last 18 months, moreover, the rate of exchange on London has, it must not be overlooked, risen from 14d. to 19½d., with every prospect of rapidly improving on the termination of the war. In this fact alone, then, we may see how greatly exaggerated the anticipations of our contemporary as to the pecuniary effect of the war in the empire are.

Considering the disturbance in the labour market of the country by the war, production in Brazil might have been expected to have declined, and yet production has largely increased; concurrently with the war Brazil has found a new source of wealth in the cultivation of cotton, which has steadily poured some four or five millions sterling a year into the empire since 1865, and it is going on extending in production and in value. Neither has the production of sugar or coffee declined; cocoa has been currently exported in still larger quantities; and steam navigation in the Amazon, and its tributary rivers is tapping the resources of the hidden wealth of their fertile banks. We have, indeed, in former articles showed that, during the last few years the foreign trade of the empire has increased 17 per cent. In some respects this increase may be ascribed to the pressure of the war, which throughout the war has led to great economy of labour; and it is very much in greater economy of labor, that the hopes and prospects of the empire are involved.

It was, of course, largely owing to this increased productive power and to this augmented commercial activity that, in September 1868, Viscount Itaborahy was able so successfully to raise an internal loan of 30 mil. contos, about £3,000,000, at 90½ at the usual rate of interest, and only in Rio; and that the Treasury has been so amply supplied with money on security similar to our Exchequer Bills, and so able to dispense with any appeal to the money markets of Europe.

Their effect on the revenue of the empire has, too, been great. The produce of ordinary taxation during the war has increased; in 1867 the whole system of taxation was reorganized in a more rational and scientific way, much to the advantage of the Treasury, large economies in ordinary expenditure were simultaneously introduced and carried out; some considerable additional taxation was imposed; and on the termination of the war there will be, it is quite certain, a considerable excess of income over expenditure. This excess, it is not to be doubted, will then be applied to a reduction of paper currency, so as to gradually restore it to a level with coin; for that, we may be certain, is the great aim and object of Viscount Itaborahy's financial policy.—

IMPORTANT FROM CHILE.

The Araucanian 'caciques' took formal leave of H. E. the President on the 26th ult., in the 'Palacio de la Moneda', before a considerable number of spectators. Quilahueque was dressed in the showy uniform of a colonel, and wore a cocked hat with a tricolored plume of feathers, and judging from his manners and appearance, he was evidently very much impressed with his new 'rig.' At his side were Nahuetripai and his secretary Tori. The latter is a son of the cacique Nanucheo. Several other less powerful caciques took up a position in the rear, and behind them were their 'young men'. The President was accompanied by the four Ministers of State, Colonel Saavedra and several other officers of high rank in the army. The proceedings of the day were commenced by Quilahueque, in a speech in which he thanked the President for the great favor he had done him in listening to his supplications for peace, and begged that he, the president, would not allow the lands of the Indians to be forcibly taken away from them. The latter observation of Quilahueque induced Colonel Saavedra to call the old cacique to account for his previous conduct, and to defend the frontier authorities from the indirect charge of having despoiled the Indians of their lands. The cacique admitted all the remarks of Colonel Saavedra were perfectly true, and excused his late conduct by stating that he had been instigated and misled by certain evil-disposed persons. H. E. the President in reply promised the Indians the protection of the Government as long as they behaved themselves well, but threatened them with nothing short of extermination if they again rebelled. Quilahueque replied reiterating his promises of fidelity. H. E. the President then spoke as follows:" Listen. These are my last words. Here H. E. took in his right hand an enormous oaken stick with a massive silver head and profusely ornamented with tassels, and turning to Colonel Saavedra said:—Colonel: I place this stick in your hands in order that when you are convinced of the loyal friendship of Quilahueque, and of the 'arribanos' by theis deeds you may hand it over to him as an insignia of command and preeminence. When that day arrives Quilahueque shall be legally appointed Governor by the Government itself, and will maintain his authority with all its power and all its strength." The words of H. E. having been interpreted to Quilahueque, he looked with covetous eyes upon the ponderous insignia of command held out to him as a reward for his future fidelity. The ceremony being now over, the Indians commenced to retire, wishing friendly adieus to the spectators who formed in a line to allow them to pass.

PRISONS AND PRISON MANAGEMENT.

(Communicated.)

I have noticed of late in the columns of your paper several articles respecting the prisons in Buenos Ayres, and the manner in which those prisons are managed. It by no means requires a close observer to discover that the horrid and wretched state of affairs now existing in the prisons here would hardly find a parallel in the civilised or even in the half civilized countries on the globe. The protection for life and property in this community hangs upon a brittle thread, and will continue to remain so until some thorough change is made in the prisons and the prison management. To propose a reform in the present existing state of affairs in these prisons requires more ingenuity than that of which I am possessed; but a proposition to establish a system of discipline and order entire, and one that would insure the protection of the life and property of this community to an extent equal to that of other civilised countries, is not so difficult a task. The buildings which now contain the prisoners, as they are at present conducted, afford but slight security against the escape of the prisoners, although I am of the opinion that many of these frequent escapes are effected for the want of proper mode of management among officers as well as prisoners; for I care not if your prison walls exceed in thickness the walls that enclose the Chinese city, the prisoners will continue to escape, unless a proper system is established and thoroughly carried out among the prisoners and their officers also. In the second place the prisoner after being incarcerated does not receive the just reward due to his crimes under their present mode of conducting their affairs; he is supposed to be committed to prison for the punishment of a crime which has been clearly proved that he has in open violation of the law committed; but he becomes rather a burden in that institution, than a prisoner, suffering the penalty of an offended law, and the sure results of such kind of management is to increase the commission of crime; for the convict on his release or escape, will continue to practice his former acts of dishonesty, entirely fearless of the prison or its punishments. But once establish a thorough mode of discipline and treatment in their prisons, and my word for it, the midnight, and the daylight assassin, will soon to a great extent cease his bloody work: and the crime of murder, now so often chronicled, would then prove of rare occurrence. And other crimes would cease to be committed with that bold defiance of the law, which now seems to characterize the acts of the thief and the burglar; for when this class of men once learn, as learn soon they would, that the penalty of the law would be fully executed without reserve upon all those sentenced to prison for crimes committed, cautious indeed would they move in all their acts of dishonesty; the prisons thoroughly regulated would prove a terror to those evils doers, and would lead to the most beneficial results, by causing a great decrease in the catalogue of crime, which would certainly tend toward a better state of morals in society, and also contribute no small amount to the safety of the business portion of the community, as well as to the citizens in general. There is another point in this matter of prisons and their management that deserves some attention, and one which in my opinion, it would be well for the Legislature now in session to spend a few short hours in careful deliberation upon. The great expenditure of this Government is in support of these prisons, amounting to $1,000,000 annually: now this is not only an enormous expense; but really an unnecessary tax upon the citizens, for with the proper mode of procedure with their prisons, every dollar of this money, expended for the support of their prisons, could be annually saved to the Government. The question has frequently been asked in debates during the present session of the Legislature, where is the money to be procured, that we are asked to vote for these different improvements?

That question I am not able myself to answer the Honourable Gentlemen, but I can tell them how and where $1,000,000 are annually squandered, to support their prisons, every dollar of which should be and can be as easily saved as lost by proper management in the affairs of their prisons, and not only would the money be saved, but at the same time great additions would be made to the safety and morals of this great community. Now the complete remedy for this great evil, and this needless and enormous expense, lies alone in the hands of the Government authorities, they have the means, and the power, to apply the same remedy, and the application of this remedy requires but a slight effort on the part of the Government to make, and should they neglect to put forth that effort to remove this great and growing evil, they alone are responsible for that neglect, and will ere long be called to an account for their non-performance of duty in this matter of such vital importance to the whole community, for a refusal to immediately put forward this much desired object; they have not the slightest excuse to justify themselves, for they have here residing amongst them responsible men, who from many years experience in the successful management of the best regulated prisons, now known, are perfectly competent to bring about this happy result, and with sufficient encouragement from this Government, their services can be procured to undertake this important work, and carry it into successful operation; these arrangements once entered into by the Government, their prison expenses, would soon be reduced to a great extent, and continue to grow beautifully less, and in the space of two years instead of their prisons being a cost to the Government, they will bring an annual revenue to the Government, of more than one fourth of what it now costs to support them.

DELTA.

WESTWARD HO!

I find New York wonderfully changed after six years absence. Nearly all the buildings put up within that time are of a new style, somewhat resembling the buildings in Paris. They are very large, and are perfect palaces. I saw no street in Great Britain that will compare with Broadway. London is truly a large city, and is twice the size of New York; but it has no very fine or very long streets. The buildings are of an old style, and have a dirty, gloomy appearance, which makes London look bad. I saw no such crowds of people in London as Broadway presents. I certainly think New York a more beautiful city than any I saw in England or Scotland, but I must confess that, in one thing, the English are ahead of the Yankees; that is, the politeness of railroad employés and others to travellers. It is one of the first rough corners with which the English traveller comes in contact with in coming to this country. I spoke about this in a former letter to you. The traveller meets with it the first thing in setting foot on the wharf in New York, in the Custom-house officer. When I arrived in Southampton the Custom-house inspector told me to open my trunk. He looked in and told me to close it, without having touched a single article.

After remaining about two weeks in New York, I came on to this place, stopping ten days in the western part of New York State, and am now in the western part of Indiana. I shall stay long enough to visit my friends, and then take the back track.

Immigration is flowing over at such a rate, as has never been known before. A Swede who was a passenger in the same steamer with me, and who was bringing over a couple hundred of his countrymen that he had hired, told me that there were in Sweden alone no less than 3,000,000 who will come over as soon as they can obtain passages. These figures may be stretched somewhat, but certain it is, that the steamer that brings emigrants, cannot begin to bring all that want to come; some have to wait a long time in Glasgow before they can get a passage. It is generally supposed now that the census of the United States which is to be taken in 1870 will give about 40,000,000 of inhabitants.

Velocipedes are all the go in New York now, several large establishments for manufacturing them are in full blast, and large quantities are turned out daily. I had thought of sending one to the Superintendent of South American Missions, but came to the conclusion that it would not be best to do so, as he would be sure to run it backwards as he does every other hobby that he gets hold of.

The weather has been very wet here this spring, it has rained almost steadily here for the last two months, but in New York State and the New England States it has been very dry. Wheat however looks good, some Indian corn has been planted; but is rotting in the ground, and it is feared that if it does not clear off soon that it will be too late to plant.

Yours truly,
R. O.

Ounces	400
Sovereigns	122½
Patacons	25
National Bonds	62

National Bonds rose to-day and sold up to 62½. The bulls made their first appearance to-day, and for awhile they appeared to carry the market with them, but an English broker, who evidently had heavy orders to sell, at once shook the market by offering to sell freely at present quotations; the bulls took fright. Prices are very nearly at a mark which will admit of holders realizing without a loss; the few bulls that are know this, and hence the very sudden turn in the market.

Bonds, Bolsa, and Bank shares, and real estate have now touched such prices that almost everyone thinks the time for realizing has come. The newspapers are stuffed full with the auctioneer's notices of house property in every corner of the city, and in a few days some immense properties will be thrown on the market to be sold by order of the Court. In Bolsa shares there has been a good deal doing. Sales to-day—

40 shares at 90 per cent. premium.
20 do 85 do do
35 do 65 do do

The last sale which was effected to-day caused much surprise, but it is guaranteed to us by Mr. Beccar, the clerk of the Bolsa. Argentine Bank shares also show great movement sales to-day, 200 shares at 7¾ per cent. premium.

The Bond sales to-day were as follows:—

For cash 106,000 at 62
Tuesday 30,000 at 62½
Dec. 31 5,000 at 62½
Total sales, 141,000.

Exchange ruled to-day firm and with an apparent upward tendency: the rate closed at 49½ on England, and 5-17-00 on Antwerp. There is a good deal of paper offering, and takers hope to see the rate soon at 50d.

In the wool market to-day although prices were firm, there was less done. Mr. Duggan sold about fifteen thousand arr. at prices ranging from 48 to 56. Some good lots have just come in, and will be sold in the morning. Amongst the other brokers Messrs. Moreno, Fallon, Unzue and others. About 20,000 arr. sold at yesterday's prices. In the South Plaza sales are very active, and prices rule higher than in the Plaza Once, but if they do, it is because the South wool is in better and cleaner condition, and South wools are generally much preferred by the buyers this year.

Messrs. Donovan and Bentham made the following sales: —

1st. The Proposals will be received on December 22d, at Two p.m., in the Municipal Hall.

2d. The purchaser must undertake the collection of these imposts, strictly according to law, leaving with each contributor a Printed Form, letting forth the name of the street, number of the house, employment of occupier, month, and the amount due.

3d. The Printed Forms above mentioned shall be stamped and marked by the Municipality.

4th. No impost can be demanded from any one engaged in the Public Service, except those disqualified by this body.

5th. Contractors must be subject to any increase or diminution in the Taxes, from whatever cause.

6th. The Contractor cannot send to collect before the 20th of the month for which the Bill corresponds.

7th. The Contractors shall respect the exemption certificates issued by the Municipality of each Parish, handing in on the last day of each month to this body a list of such parties, the number of their houses, and their respective amounts to be verified and refunded.

8th. The infraction, on the part of the contractors, of any part of the obligations incurred by articles 6, 7, and 8, shall be subjected each time to a fine of $2,000.

10th. All complaints from tax-payers shall be arranged by law.

11th. The Municipality has a right at any time to demand the books (padrones) from the contractors, to compare them with the books of the office.

12th. Intending contractors must present their names and those of their bails to this office, at least four days previous to hearing of the proposals, it being understood that none can bid but those whose bails have been accepted:

On the last day of each month the auctioneer and his bails must sign jointly checks for payment of the monthly quotas. The bails are in every case responsible for the auctioneer, and no excuse for non-fulfilment will be admitted.

$10 will save 1000 Sheep

THE ONLY CURE FOR ROT IN SHEEP.

A Certain destroyer for Maggots, in all Class of Animals.

Let the Sheep infected with this disease in the feet be put into a dry place; after remaining an hour, take a brush and clean the dirt from between the claws, then shaking the bottle well, dip a stick or feather into the liquid, and anoint the diseased part all over, after which let them stand dry for an hour. If properly applied, one application is generally sufficient.

To destroy maggots it may be used in the same manner, but sometimes it requires to be applied three times; it also cures all sorts of ulcers arising from them, and may be applied to any cut to prevent the flies from forming maggots.

Experience has proved it to be the best preventive that can be applied after castrating stallions, and one application of the liquid may save a valuable life.

THE PERFECTION OF PREPARED COCOA
Maravilla Cocoa.
Sole Proprietors,
TAYLOR, BROTHERS, London.

The Cocoa [or Cacao] of Maravilla, is the true Theobroma of Linnæus. Cocoa is indigenous to South America, of which Maravilla is a favored portion. Taylor Brothers having secured the exclusive supply of this unrivalled Cocoa, have, by the skilful application of their soluble principle and elaborate machinery, produced what is so undeniably the perfection of prepared Cocoa, that it has not only secured the preference of homœopaths and cocoa-drinkers generally, but many who had hitherto not found any preparation to suit them, have, after one trial, adopted the Maravilla Cocoa as their constant beverage for breakfast, luncheon, &c.

"A SUCCESS UNPRECEDENTED," &c.

See following Extract from the 'Globe' of May 14, 1868:—

"Various importers and manufacturers have attempted to attain a reputation for their prepared Cocoas, but we doubt whether any thorough success had been achieved until Messrs. Taylor Brothers discovered the extraordinary quality of 'Maravilla' Cocoa. Adopting their perfect system of preparation to this finest of all species of the Theobroma, they have produced an article which supersedes every other Cocoa in the market. Entire solubility, a delicate aroma, and a rare concentration of the purest elements of nutrition, distinguish the Maravilla Cocoa above all others. For Homœopaths and invalids we could not recommend a more agreeable or valuable beverage.

Sold in packets only by all Grocers, of whom also may be had Taylor Brothers' Original Homœopathic Cocoa and Soluble Chocolate.

COUGHS, COLDS, RHEUMATISM, DYSENTERY, AND FEVER.

The Times, of India, states "that the discovery of D. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE is a greater blessing to the human race than even the discovery of Vaccination.' This remedy is invaluable in the above diseases and is indispensable to Emigrants, Travellers and Families, a few doses being generally sufficient.

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE.—The Right Hon. Earl Russell communicated to the College of Physicians and J. T. Davenport, that he had received information to the effect that the only remedy of any service in Cholera was Chlorodyne.—See Lancet, December 31, 1864.

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE.—Extract from Medical Times, January 12, 1866:—"Is prescribed by scores of orthodox medical practitioners. Of course it would not be thus singularly popular did it not 'supply a want and fill a place.'"

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE is the most certain remedy in Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Consumption, Neuralgia, Rheumatism, &c.

From A. Montgomery, Esq., late Inspector of Hospitals, Bombay:—"Chlorodyne is a most valuable remedy in Neuralgia, Asthma, and Dysentery. To it I fairly owe my restoration to health after eighteen months' severe suffering, and when all other medicines had failed."

It is necessary to warn the public against spurious imitations, which only bear the pirated name, and are deficient of the true properties of the only genuine, viz.:—Dr. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S, as was proved before Vice-Chancellor Sir W. P. Wood, in the Court of Chancery, in the case of Brown v. Freeman, when Dr. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE. Extract from the General Board of Health, London, as to its efficacy in Cholera:—"So strongly are we convinced of the immense value of this remedy, that we cannot too forcibly urge the necessity of using it in all cases."

the Vice-Chancellor stated "that the whole statement of Freeman was deliberately untrue, and he regretted to say it had been sworn to."

TESTIMONIAL.
Copy of a letter from the late Colonel Hawker (the well-known author on "Guns and Shooting.")
Longparish House, near Whitchurch, Hants, October 21, 1846.
SIR—I cannot resist informing you of the extraordinary effect I have experienced by taking only a few of your 'Lozenges.' I had a cough for several weeks that defied all that had been prescribed for me; and yet I got completely rid of it by taking about half a small box of your Lozenges, which I find are the only ones that relieve the cough without deranging the stomach or digestive organs.
